

Financing Issues for Investment Company Boards

AIC Seminar
16th February 2010

The AIC held a seminar on 16th February 2010 on financing issues for investment company boards. The following presentations were made at this event:

- The current lending environment, Michael Gray, RBS
- Legal considerations of various financing options, Douglas Armstrong, Dickson Minto
- Debt financing, Russell Evans, Lloyds TSB
- Structural options for raising finance, Angus Gordon Lennox, JP Morgan Cazenove
- A new initiative to provide long-term debenture finance, Stephen Westwood, CES Investments Limited
- Learning the lessons of the financial crisis, Robert Peel, Winterflood Investment Trusts

Biographies for the speakers can be found here.

In addition to investment company directors, company secretaries and advisers to the sector, the event was also attended by representatives from some of the banks involved in the investment company sector. Information and contact details for these lenders can be found here.

For further information, please contact Alison Andrews at alison.andrews@theaic.co.uk